DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 5 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The claims state that a “novel evaporative cooling technique” is used. However, that is no disclosure of said “novel evaporative cooling technique” in the specification.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-18 rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure, which goes to make up the device, must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

See US Pat. 6,229,031 or US Pat. 5,382,678 or US Pat. 4,642,317.

Furthermore, it should be noted that claim 1 reads on a process not a composition. Dependent claims 2-3 both refer to a composition that is allegedly contained in claim 1. If applicant is referring to the product produced by the process of claim 1, the terminology regarding the end product should be consistent. The following phrasing can be used, "... preparation of a composition comprising a mixture of fatty acid/crude lecithin calcium salt matrix...."
